

Patchworking

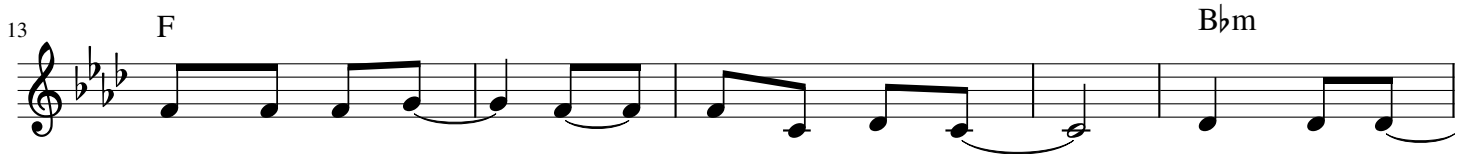

Jennifer Brown

1.Patch - work-ing, that's my way That's how I org - an - ise - 2.Little one wakes me with the sun - Lets me know the day's 3.Feed the chooksand milk the cow - Pick some appl - es, they're rip - 4.Write a song and sing some more - Do the dish - es and sweep - 5.Patch - work-ing through the day - seems to me - a bal - 6.Time a - lone in med - i - tat - ion; Time to - geth - er in con -

- the day Bits and piec - es of work and play - be - gun; Wants a drink - and - something to eat - en - ing now; Take the chain - saw and cut some wood -
 - the floor; Stop for a cuppa with friends that call -
 - anced way to meet the flow - of needs and time -
 - ver - sat - ion, Watch the eag - le's - soar - ing flight -

Patch - es of rain - bows, shad - ings of grey - Sewn to - geth -
 Climbs - in bed - with his litt - le cold feet - I answ - er Fidd - le the fuse - till the en - gine comes good, - Pump some wat - Play a - a bit - with some kids and a ball, then back to build - and not pur - sue - that rig - id - line of nine to five - Gath - er - ing fuel in the fad ing light, Kind - le a fire -

- er in a fine arr - ay - Patch - work - ing.
 quest - ions with my brain still a - sleep,
 - er, - I know - I should ;
 - ing that - un - fin - ished wall - ;
 that und - er - mines - your - san - i - ty;
 - to - warm the night - ;