

What do Lesbians Do?

Barbara David

Barbara David

D 2 G

1. I was sitt - ing one day in bi - ol - o - gy class, I was
2. I was sitt - ing one day on the grass in the park with the
3. I was sitt - ing cross-legged on the foot - path one day as
4. I was sitt - ing one even - ing at dinn - er for eight, it was
5. It's an in - erest - ing quest - ion, it keeps gett - ing asked, and I'm on - ly a young - ster of twelve. The less - on was bor - ing, the love of my life by my side. We were inn - o cent lass - es self - part of a pro - test for peace. Re - port - ers had called us all reall - y a form - al aff - air, The boss and his wife had sure they're all dy - ing to know: Do we hang from a lamp - shade with teach - er quite slack, so we chatt - ed and laughed 'mongst our - selves - Con - ver - cons ious as hell and our ig - nor ance ea - ger to hide. We dis - "Comm - un - ist dykes" we were close - ly pat - rolled by po - lice. The asked us all round, it was terr - ib - ly bor - ing and square. When the face paint - ed mauve as, ex - cit - ed, we swing to and fro? We must

3 A 4 D 5

6 G 7 A 8 D

9 10 11 F A (b base)

sat - ion was i - dle, the to - pics di - verse, though they most - ly verged on the ta - cussed be - ing queer and de - cid - ed we were but that was - n't what made us feel cope were be - ginn - ing to cart us a way when I heard one big fell - ow in wife of a work mate as pissed as a newt, with the air of the sweet - est vir - have to do some - thing quite wild and bi - zarre for they know we can't "prop - er - ly"

12 D 13 14 G

boo, When one girl posed a quest - ion that had us all stumped: she asked blue. The prob - lem we had when it came to the crunch, was blue ask a mate in a whis - per not quite soft e - nough ask tue Leaned ov - er the tab - le and asked with a blush, "Tell me, screw, But I fear that they'll have to con - tin - ue to guess, for I'm

