

The Meaning of Life

Sue Edmonds

Sue Edmonds

♩ = 160
Kazoo Voices

10 (oh no, no, no) When I'm dead-

15 know I can't take it when I go (oh no no no) the grass that
When I'm dead I won't need a lawn - (oh no no no)

21 Oh, no, no, no, How I kept my edges low
- they'll never know keeps me as - a pawn; (the lawn, the lawn) It'll bend to another's brawn;

28 'll all be for gott en My lawn might be the lab - ours all for - gott-en Oh, the hours, the 33 In deed, in deed I sweep up the leaves just to keep it neat best in the street - - (the time, the time) fight-ing - nat - ure with sweat and tears;

weeks and the years -

38 so neat, so neat, from week to week -
It nev er chang - es - of fear (hohoh, hohoh) (boo hoo, boohoo) Kept a - live in state of

- That 'll all be for - gott en
All that 'll be for - gott-en-while we're Sweep ing the sand from the door -

45

- Stopping - the rain - from washing the floor - Iron ing out the creases

52

Suck ing up the dirt; (slurp) Is this the mean ing of life?

58

Keep ing - the wolf - from the door - Mak ing the place - more - se cure - spend ing on the round a bouts, sav ing on the swings, Is this the mean ing of life?

65

71