

Earth Magic

Barbara Stephenson

C C F

1. All of life - that circ - les round and
 2. Trees are black_ and stark ac - ross the
 3. The world's in spin, all's right with plan - et
 4. I see the miracle of life, and I'm con -
 5. How come that life gives ever - y thing I
 6. And now I feel the mag - ic in the

4 G7 C C

round;
 sky;
 earth;
 tent;
 need;
 air;
 wint - er
 New birds
 Wis - dom
 The strange - ness, madness, all
 How come the joy
 And I can see

7 F G7

new life deep - und - er - ground;
 and burst with birth - ing cries;
 the ag - es takes the hurt of the en - er - gy that's spent in can heal me when I bleed; it's the spell - cast ever - y - where; in/the

9 F G7

seeds are ly - ing dorm - ant, wait - ing bloss - om - ing with prom - ise, - an - oth - er man's at - roc - i - ties to man, to eve - ry - sec - ond of each hour of all too much of - to com - pre - hend, I'll pow - er of the sea - sons, in the 11 C Em Am F

for the spring's first hum;
 line up on the page;
 nat - ure, to all kinds;
 time since earth was made;
 sit back and en - joy;
 wond - er of a tree;
 looking forward - to look It - draws upon - its Yet com passion - still con - let/life use me as it harsh gent - le ness of 2

14 G7 C 2.,4.,5.,6. F

know the time has come? And I give thanks to the back up - on earth's age.
 strength, it will sur - vive.
 tin - ues ever - y day.
 may, I'll be its toy.
 nat - ure's here for me.

18 G C F

one who is the mak - er I give thanks to who -

22 G C C7 F G

ev - er that may be I give thanks to the giv - er and the 27 Em Am F G7 C D.C.

tak - er for giv - ing so ver - y much to me.