Am G7 Am Dm Am

I am sixty nine and I've had a stroke; I'm going out of my mind in a nursing home;

8 E7 Am G7 Am G7 Am

They say that I am lucky; there are worse places to go. I am paralyzed - down the right side;

16 Dm Am E7 Am

I - can't - talk - an-y more and express my mind; - I'm an old age pensioner put a way to die.

42 G7 Am G7 Am G7 Am G7 Am E7

Put a way to die, Put a way to die, Too old for rights, too old to fight, put a way to die.

50 Am G7 Am Dm Am

My days are rep-e - ti-tious - but I am occ-u - pied reading all the women's mag-a - zines that I can find

58 E7 Am G7 Am G7 Am

My time is most happy - when the fam-i - ly drops by. Put a way to die, Put a way to die,

66 G7 Am G7 Am E7 Am G7 Am

Too old for rights, too old to fight, put a way to die. Sometimes I laugh - at how I tried to be a law-a-biding cit-i-zen - insocie - y, And here I am, re - jected, tucked a - way, put a-way to die.

74 Dm Am E7 Am

82 G7 Am G7 Am G7 Am G7 E7 Am

Put a way to die, Put a way to die, Too old for rights, too old to fight, put a-way to die.
